

GROUNDBREAKERS SPEAK

A CONVERSATION WITH ASIAN AMERICAN MOVERS & SHAKERS

Crow Collection of Asian Art

2010 Flora Street . Dallas, TX 75201

Saturday, May 11, 2013

DAT NGUYEN

1st Vietnamese American NFL Player/
ESPN Radio San Antonio Host

"There's nothing wrong with dreaming big, but you have to put time and effort in order to gain an edge. It's all about attitude."

KARIN OEN

Director of Education at The

"...Maybe part of our goals in our generation is to contribute and build to create visibility across the new border, whether you choose to be in the arts or entertainment."

KENT TAKANO

VP Programming, Brand Integration
at HGTV and DIY Network

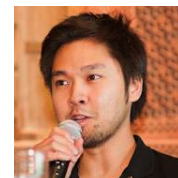

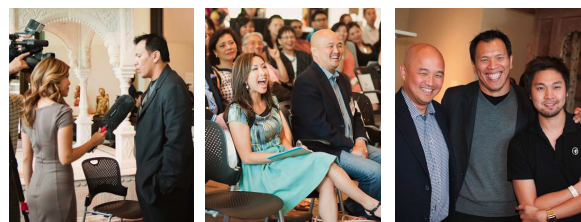

"Be prepared for the opportunity... find something you really want to do, because if you didn't enjoy doing whatever, you're not going to be good at it."

TANYA PINTO

Founder of Baal Dan Charities

"I want people to know that they can make a difference. As Mother Teresa said, 'If you can't feed a hundred people, then feed just one.' We can all do something to help one child, one person in need."

HA MAI

Founder/CEO
of Fur Face Boy

"Always look for new ways to keep your brand fresh. Stay consistent, tell stories, fail, travel, ignore the haters, don't compare yourself to others and meet people!"

RICHARD JUNG

Lawyer/Advocate/Politician

"Be courageous enough to make a face, and make face in the direction that you want... because you have qualities and characteristics that are going to help you succeed."

LILY JANG

Emmy nominated Journalist, TV Host
and News Anchor at KHOU

"Inform, engage and inspire...now that we are into the second generation, we have more role models, more leadership and finally, that's a good thing."
